THE BIBLE UNPACKED

Tuesday 20 May 2025

2.30pm

Little Malvern Priory, Little Malvern WR14 4JN

Admission free

The Reverend Stephen Sealy will talk about the bible, and explore the scripture from some angles not often considered. The bible is, of course, central to our understanding of the Christian faith, but how well do we know it, and the way it came to be in its present form?

- Who wrote the different books of the bible?
- In what language was it first written?
- How should we treat the various different types of writing, and what is it to say that the bible is 'divinely' inspired?
- How should we approach difficult passages which may not be considered helpful today?

The talk will cover cultural contexts, literary styles and spiritual application, and we shall look at some passages in greater depth.

All are welcome - and please bring a bible with you!
